Pre-Lecture Visit

There is currently a wonderful display of about 200 orchids, many in bloom, in Churchill College's orchid greenhouse.

Our forthcoming CSAR lecture is on a botanic topic and will be given by Professor Beverley Glover, Director of Cambridge University Botanic Garden.

In these circumstances, our President Sir David Wallace who is a recent Master of Churchill College, has managed to arrange this Visit which is timed for immediately before our CSAR Lecture. The Head of Grounds and Gardens, John Moore, will be in attendance.

We suspect that quite a few of those attending our Lecture may be interested to see the orchid display – hence this opportunity for our Members.

Note:

1. the £5 charge – half the usual CSAR Visit charge - will be split between CSAR Student Award Scheme and Churchill College.
2. Churchill College provides excellent modestly-priced self-service meals in Hall, of which CSAR members are welcome to take advantage before CSAR Lectures. Dinner is served from 6.00pm, no booking is necessary and you pay then-and-there.
